

2018 EAEPE SUMMER SCHOOL 2–6 July, 2018

THE CHANGING STRUCTURE OF THE ECONOMY AND THE ROLE OF THE STATE. DE-INDUSTRIALIZATION AND FINANCIALIZATION

University Roma Tre, Department of Economics.

Via Silvio D'Amico 77, 00145 Rome, Italy.

Local organisers: Pasquale Tridico, Sebastiano Fadda, Riccardo Pariboni

The EAEPE Summer School is open to PhD students and early-career researchers working in particular in the field of institutional and evolutionary analysis, with a special focus this year on structural change, the role of the state, de-industrialization, financialization, institutions and economic development. Teachers will address these important topics from different perspectives and approaches. In the spirit of pluralism characteristic of the EAEPE, many Research Areas are relevant: Macroeconomics, Labour economics, Effective Demand, Environment-economy interactions, Entrepreneurship and theory of the firm, Methodology of economics, Economic history, Evolutionary economic simulation, Comparative economics, Industrial policy, Institutional change, Innovation and technology, etc. More generally, contributions from all fields using institutional, evolutionary, multidisciplinary approaches are welcome. Lectures by internationally-renowned scholars will be given in the morning, while afternoons will be devoted to 15 presentations by advanced PhD students and early-career researchers, who will thus benefit from comments and suggestions from experts in the field.

No Summer School Fee. A flat rate of 50 euros applies for lunches (for 5 days)

Hotel Accommodation (at Villa Benedetta): Single and double rooms are available, at special prices for the students of the Summer School. First best served policy applies. Rates are the following:
