Via Silvio D'Amico 77, 00145 Rome, Italy

Local organisers: Pasquale Tridico, Sebastiano Fadda and Luigi Salvati

Contact: summerschool@eaepe.org

Submission Deadline: 5 May 2023

The EAEPE Summer School is open to PhD students and early-career researchers working in particular in the field of institutional and evolutionary analysis, with a special focus this year on inflation, welfare and technological change. In the spirit of pluralism characteristic of the organizing associations, many Research Areas are relevant and contributions from all fields using institutional, multidisciplinary approaches are welcome. Seminars by internationally renowned scholars will be given in the morning, while afternoons will be devoted to workshops and presentations by advanced PhD students and early-career researchers, who will thus benefit from comments and suggestions from experts in the field.

Application PhD students can apply by uploading their CV using the online submission form. Advanced PhD students and early-career researchers who would like to present their work can submit their proposal or paper along with their CV using the online submission form.

No Summer School Fee Participants are requested to be EAEPE members. For PhD students and those with a gross personal income less than 10,000€ per year a Special Rate EAEPE Membership is available, at the price of 25€. More information here.

Collaboration with YSI YSI offers partial travel stipends, and accommodation to selected participants. More info here.
