

EAEPE SUMMER SCHOOL 4-10 July 2010

University of Roma Tre, Dpt. of Economics, Faculty of Economics.

Via Silvio D'Amico 77, 00145 Rome, Italy. Local organisers: Pasquale Tridico and Sebastiano Fadda

The European Association for Evolutionary Political Economy (EAEPE) is glad to announce the 2010 EAEPE SUMMER SCHOOL which will be held at the University of Roma Tre from 4 to 10 July 2010.

The Summer School is open to PhD students and young researchers working in particular in the field of institutional economics, evolutionary analysis, economic and human development, environmental economics, methodology of economics, institutional history, comparative economics and variety of capitalism, transition economies, institutional change, financial crisis, labour economics, and in all other fields using institutional and evolutionary approaches.

The 2010 EAEPE Summer School will address these themes in a broad sense and will explore economic issues through a multidisciplinary, institutional and evolutionary perspective. Lecturers are international scholars well known in the field of institutional economics. Advanced PhD students and young researchers are asked to present their work. Every day, from Monday 5 to Friday 9 July, two lectures will be held in the morning, and in the afternoon advanced PhD students and young researchers will present their work getting comments and suggestions from experts in the field. On Saturday morning 10 July a workshop/special session on the current financial crisis will take place (title: Systemic Risks, Financial Crises and Credit - The Roots, Dynamics and Consequences of the Subprime Crisis). The Summer School is conducted in association with COST Action ISH0902.
