EAEPE SUMMER SCHOOL  4-8 July 2011
FINANCIAL CRISIS, LABOUR MARKETS AND INSTITUTIONS
University Roma Tre, Dpt. of Economics, Faculty of Economics.
Via Silvio D'Amico 77, 00145 Rome, Italy.
Local organisers: Pasquale Tridico and Sebastiano Fadda

Summer School Schedule

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Monday 4 July</th>
<th>Tuesday 5 July</th>
<th>Wednesdays 6 July</th>
<th>Thursday 7 July</th>
<th>Friday 8 July</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 10.00-11.30 | Malcolm Sawyer
University of Leeds | Sebastiano Fadda
University Roma Tre | Richard Wolff
New School and Massachusetts University of Amherst | Bob Jessop
Lancaster University | Anastasia Nesvetailova
City University London |
| 12.00-13.30 | Marcello Signorelli
University of Perugia | Engelbert Stockhammer
Kingston University | Alfred Kleinknecht
University of Delft | Pasquale Tridico
University Roma Tre | Joanna Tyrowicz
University of Warsaw |
| 13.30-14.30 | LUNCH – catering at the Faculty of Economics | | | | |
| 14.30-16.30 | 3 PhD student presentations | 3 PhD student presentations | 3 PhD student presentations | 3 PhD student presentations | 3 PhD student presentations |

1. Malcolm Sawyer: “The causes of the eurozone crisis and policy remedies”
3. Sebastiano Fadda: “Labour market institutions and the crisis. Where we come from and where we are going”
4. Engelbert Stockhammer: Labour market rigidities or effective demand? The macroeconomics of unemployment. Or: The finance-dominated accumulation regime, polarisation of income distribution and the crisis
6. Alfred Kleinknecht: “Does Europe need more flexible labor markets?”
9. Joanna Tyrowicz: “Crises and misery - can general equilibrium economics and the distributional effects analyses be combined?”
10. Anastasia Nesvetailova: “Beyond the political economy of Hyman Minsky: what financial innovation means today”