

Curriculum Vitae Karl Aiginger

Professor Dr Karl Aiginger is the director of the WIFO (The Austrian Institute of Economic Research). He studied economics at the University of Vienna and Purdue University in Indiana, USA. He obtained the habilitation in 1984 with the book "Production Theory and Uncertainty", published by Blackwell. He began his career at WIFO in 1970 as an economic researcher. For many years he was responsible for the background reports to the European Commission on the competitiveness of European industry. Professor Aiginger was also a visiting professor in the USA (Stanford University, MIT, and UCLA). He also teaches at the Vienna University of Economic and Business Administration. He is joint publisher of the Journal of Industry, Competition and Trade (JICT). He is the coordinator of the project "WWWforEurope – a new growth path for Europe" since April 2012 which the WIFO is undertaking together with 33 partners within the 7th Framework Programme of the EU.

Curriculum Vitae Robert H. Wade

Robert H. Wade is professor of political economy at the London School of Economics. A New Zealand citizen, he was educated in Washington DC, New Zealand, and at Sussex University. He worked at the Institute of Development Studies (Sussex), the World Bank, Princeton Woodrow Wilson School, MIT Sloan School, and Brown University. Answering Adam Smith-type questions about how economies can create income and wealth, he has conducted fieldwork in Pitcairn Is., Italy, India, Korea, Taiwan, Iceland, and inside the World Bank and IMF.

His interests span trends in global growth, poverty and distributive inequality, national development strategies (including industrial policy), financial crises, the operation of the informal US empire, and global governance organizations. And also the profession and ethics of economists!

Author of Irrigation and Politics in South Korea (1982), Village Republics: The Economic Conditions of Collective Action in India (1988, 1994, 2007), Governing the Market: Economic Theory and the Role of Government in East Asia's Industrialization (1990, 2004). Latter won the American Political Science Association's award of Best Book in Political Economy, 1992. He was awarded the Leontief Prize for Advancing the Frontiers of Economic Thought in 2008.